

Maestro Splicing Equipment for Fast and High Quality Splicing

Take the guesswork out of fast, high quality splicing.

Ammeraal Beltech developed the next generation of belt splicing equipment called Maestro.

With Maestro splicing equipment, Ammeraal Beltech has made a leap forward in the critical areas of quality, efficiency, speed and precision.

Maestro splice equipment is especially designed for the on-site splicing of Ammeraal Beltech process and conveyor belts.

Innovation & Service in Belting

The unique Maestro concept makes Ammeraal Beltech the leading supplier in global uniform splicing equipment.

General features

- Short cycle time, approx. 10 min. or less depending on belt type
- Consistent, reliable splice results and superior belt appearance
- Less shrinkage of fingers, providing stronger, flatter splices
- No glass fibre sheets or other splice plates necessary

On-site benefits

- No water or forced air cooling necessary
- High speed for less production downtime
- Integrated wheels allow for easy transportation around the plant
- Its compact / thin dimensions ensures that it can be used even on small conveyors or with short tension device stroke
- Available in different voltages (please check user manual and / or local availability)
- Maestro's workshop stand accessory allows the use of the press both at the workshop and on-site

Shrinkage of fingers is reduced resulting in a stronger splice.

Lightweight materials allow easy transport around the plant.

Availability - Maestro is available in 6 different models / sizes.
